As Clerk Treasurer, it's important to Christine Pauley to work closely with all executive offices and the Carmel City Council, to not only provide efficient operation of city government but also to strengthen the community by working together. Her vision for the Office of Clerk Treasurer is to provide transparency through education, community involvement and government committee participation.

Christine was born and raised in a small town in Michigan to parents who immigrated to the United States from Poland and Lithuania following World War II. Her parents instilled in her the values, faith, patriotism, service and personal responsibility that have sustained her throughout her career.

She continued her career path as a Contract Administrator for ProLiance Energy, LLC, and then as Senior Contracts Negotiator for Raytheon Company, working with complex government and commercial acquisitions and leading contract negotiations before being elected as Clerk-Treasurer.

Christine bought her first two homes in Carmel and all three of her children were born at St. Vincent Hospital. Her son Daniel is a graduate of Hillsdale College (psychology and Spanish), daughter Susan, has a degree in nursing from Xavier University, and daughter Samantha is currently a Senior at Indiana University, where she is in the nursing program.
